

the whole shootin' match likely will come down to the debates. If Blumenthal can't make a difference there (I started to type "if he can't wipe the floor with McMahon," but I'd settle for making a difference), then he will deserve the sobriquet "Martha Coakley in pants."

And if Blumenthal can't, then the people of Connecticut will be stuck with Linda McMahon as their next senator, whether they deserve it or not.
